

Celebration, Awards & Recognition Report to 2020 AGM

Report Date	August, 2020
Submitted By	Charlotte MacNaughton

Past Year's Work

In January 2020, we coordinated our on-going Hall of Fame process, with additional categories from our initial induction in 2017. Nominations were due February 15, 2020. Details regarding the nomination process are at: www.orienteering.ca/about/halloffame. The next opportunity to nominate individuals will be in January 2022. Nominators are encouraged to resubmit nominations for individuals who have not been selected. The quality of applicants has been extremely high.

The purpose of the Orienteering Canada Hall of Fame is to recognize and honour the individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the sport in Canada. The Orienteering Canada Hall of Fame includes the following categories:

1. Order of Orienteering Canada (Lifetime Achievement)
(The initial 2017 inductees are in this category. We have changed the name from the original "Builder" category).
2. Athlete Leadership
3. Coaching Leadership
4. Officials Leadership
5. Administrator Award of Distinction

This individuals were inducted earlier in 2020:

Order of Orienteering Canada

This category recognizes and brings attention to those who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to building the sport of orienteering in Canada. Individuals in this category have dedicated years of leadership service at international, national, provincial/territorial and/or the club level. Their vision, leadership and effort has made a distinct, valuable, positive and long lasting impact on Canadian orienteering. This lifetime achievement award shall be given to individuals who have contributed to the sports heritage of Canadian orienteering for a period of not less than fifteen (15) years, although such a period of service need not necessarily be consecutive. The Order of Orienteering Canada is the highest award in Canadian orienteering.

Don Bayly

John Charlow

Adrian Zissos

Future Work – Projects and Goals

Athlete Leadership

The category applies to athletes who have achieved outstanding and long term success in Canada, or as a Canadian competing abroad and who demonstrate exemplary values, both on and off the field of play. Athletes will be evaluated on their personal sport achievements and also on their contributions and the impact they have made to orienteering in their community.

Ted de St. Croix

Pam James

Coaching Leadership

Individuals in this category have made an outstanding contribution over a period of years as an orienteering coach and/or as a developer or instructor of Orienteering Canada's coaching programs.

Bill Anderson

Officials Leadership

Individuals in this category have made an exemplary contribution over a period of years as an official (course setter, controller and/or event director). Individuals may have also made a significant contribution as a developer or instructor of Orienteering Canada's officials development programs and/or other technical aspects of the sport (such as: rules, event guidelines, LTAD development, etc). Outstanding Canadian mappers may also be included in this category.

Earle Phillips

Malcolm Adams

Administrator of Award of Distinction

Individuals in this category have made a significant contribution to the growth and development of the sport with their orienteering club or provincial/territorial orienteering association or at the national level. They have made a significant contribution to developing orienteering as a Board member, program developer, innovative promoter of orienteering, etc. They have been a difference maker.

Margaret James

Gord Hunter